- 1 Tell the file about your studio
Open the Settings tab and type your business name, currency symbol, hourly wage, overhead % and target margin. Twenty seconds, and every formula in the file now speaks your numbers.
- 2 Add your products and yarn
In Product Catalog, one row per thing you make: price, yarn cost, packaging, hours to make. In Yarn & Materials, log your stash with what each ball costs.
- 3 Log sales as they happen
After a fair (or an online order), add one row per item sold in the Sales Log. The dashboard, monthly summary and reorder list update themselves.

✓ The golden rule

Type only in the open, cream-coloured cells. Every formula cell is locked so the maths can never be overwritten by accident.

The Dashboard tab

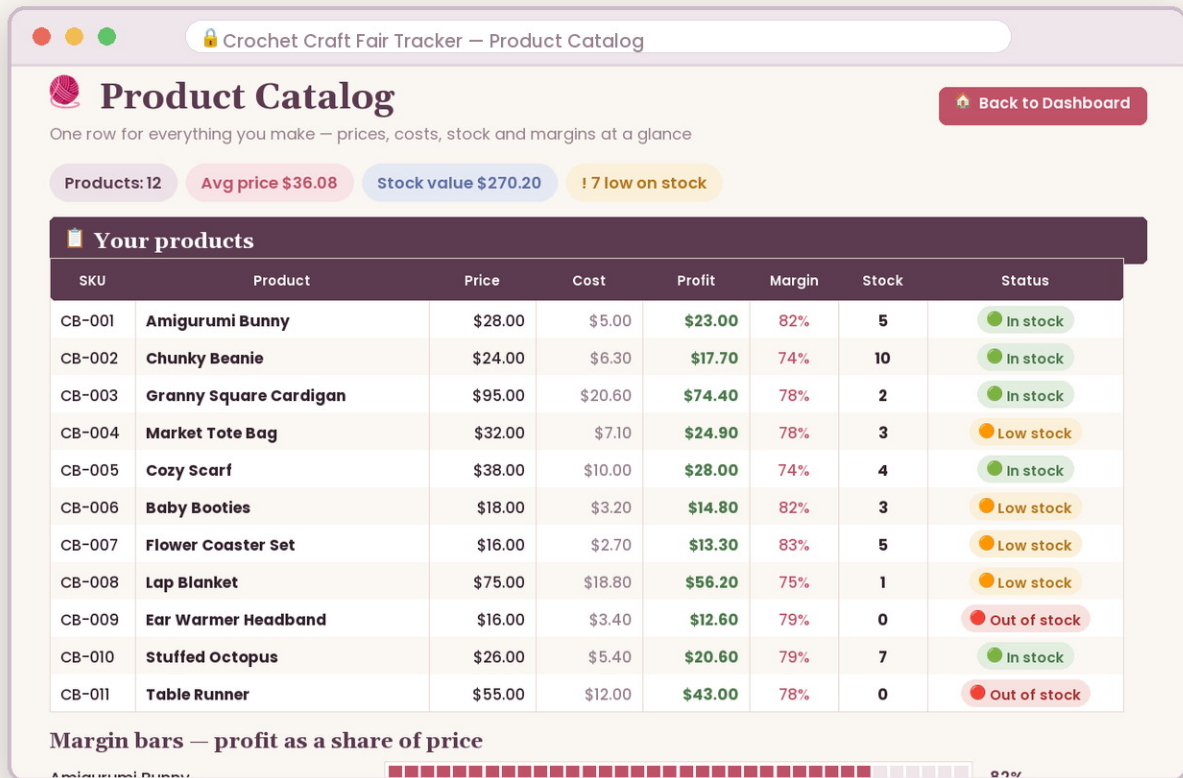

Your whole business on one screen — the banner, the numbers and every chart refresh themselves as you log sales.

- ✓ Snapshot cards — gross sales, net profit, margin and units sold, always current
- ✓ Pipeline pills — fairs booked, worked so far, average sale, stock value, sell-through
- ✓ Charts — sales & net by month, how customers paid, top products by revenue
- ✓ Best performers — your top fair, top seller and best-margin product, named
- ✓ Restock radar — plain-English alerts with the numbers behind them

Pricing Calculator

Never underprice a hand-made item again

What goes into one item

Yarn cost	$4.00
Packaging, labels	$1.00
Hours to make	1.5 h
Your hourly wage	$14.00
Overhead	10%
Target margin	45%

What to charge

Your labour	$21.00
Overhead	$2.60
True cost to make	$28.60

Price at your margin

$52.00

Charm price $51.95 · profit $23.40 per item

$$\text{true cost} \div (1 - \text{margin}) = \text{price}$$

True cost ÷ (1 - margin) = price — yarn, packaging, your hours and overhead, at the margin you set. It even suggests a charm price ($51.95, not $52.00) and the profit per item.

Monthly Summary Dashboard Start Here

- ✓ Every dropdown list is yours — product categories, payment methods, yarn weights, suppliers
- ✓ Change your hourly wage or target margin once, and every price suggestion follows
- ✓ The season note is your scratchpad — it appears on the dashboard banner
- ✓ Colours, fonts and layout are part of the locked design, so the file stays beautiful

A note on locked cells

The 1,250+ formula cells are protected so a stray keystroke can't break the maths. If you understand spreadsheets and truly want to tinker, most spreadsheet apps let you unprotect a sheet — but for almost everyone, the open cells are everything you need.

Questions & answers

Which apps open this file?

Excel 2016 or newer on Windows, Excel for Mac, Microsoft 365, and Google Sheets (File Import Upload Replace spreadsheet). No macros — nothing to enable.

Can I add more products, materials or fairs?

Yes — insert rows inside the existing tables and the formulas, dropdowns and charts keep working. The Start Here tab inside the file shows the safe way to do it.

Does it handle discounts and part-payments?

The Sales Log has a discount column, and the Event Profit tab nets everything out for you.

What if a fair loses money?

It happens — the Craft Fairs tab shows it in red, Event Profit tells you the sales you'd have needed to break even, and the Monthly Summary keeps the season honest.

Do I need both themes?

No — Berry and Mint are the same engine in two looks. Keep whichever you prefer as your working copy.

Licence & the short version
